2. NATURE OF SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

Summary of Concern:

The IBK transaction monitoring system flagged a series of unusual transactions on a corporate current account (Account type: SME Current Account, Currency: EUR) over the period 1 July 2024 – 12 August 2024. The detected patterns are summarised below:

Alert	Description	Amount (EUR)	Date
TM-ALERT-2024-0341	14 incoming SEPA credits from 12 different EU counterparties, all < EUR 10,000 (structuring indicator)	128,440 cumulative	1–15 Jul 2024
TM-ALERT-2024-0388	Same-day outbound transfer of EUR 115,000 to a company in a high-risk jurisdiction (listed FATF grey-list)	115,000	17 Jul 2024
TM-ALERT-2024-0412	Two large cash deposits (EUR 9,800 and EUR 9,950) within 48 hours — just below reporting thresholds	19,750	5–6 Aug 2024
TM-ALERT-2024-0455	International wire transfer of EUR 48,000 to a previously unknown beneficiary — no commercial purpose declared	48,000	12 Aug 2024

Aggregate suspicious activity total: EUR 311,190 over 43 days.

3. SUBJECT PROFILE (REDACTED VERSION)

Field	Value
Entity Type	Limited Liability Company
Incorporation	[Jurisdiction — REDACTED]
IBK Relationship	SME Banking client since [REDACTED]
Risk Rating at Last Review	Low (assigned [REDACTED])
AML Analyst's Assessment	Risk rating inconsistent with observed transaction behaviour — proposed reclassification to High

4. PRIOR DUE DILIGENCE STATUS

Standard Customer Due Diligence (SCDD) was performed at onboarding. No EDD was conducted. The transaction pattern identified was not anticipated in the expected account activity profile documented at onboarding.

5. ANALYST RECOMMENDATION

The transaction pattern presents indicators of: 1. Structuring / Smurfing — multiple sub-threshold deposits designed to avoid cash reporting obligations. 2. Trade-Based Money Laundering (TBML) — outbound transfers to high-risk jurisdictions with no demonstrated commercial purpose.

Recommendation: File SAR with FIU-DE and freeze new outbound transactions (internal hold pending compliance review).
